

International Film Festival "Follow Your Heart"

Decision of the Organizing Committee

November 1, 2022 № 011

On the Establishment of the Jury Commission and Approval of the Protocol for the Selection of Jury Members for the International Film Festival "Follow Your Heart"

Based on the Regulations of the International Film Festival "Follow Your Heart," approved by the Organizer on January 1, 2022, and in alignment with the festival's mission to promote talented filmmakers whose works cultivate profound emotional resonance with global audiences, the Organizing Committee of the International Film Festival "Follow Your Heart" HAS DECIDED:

1. To establish a Jury Commission to conduct the open competitive selection of films at the International Film Festival "Follow Your Heart," (which will take place on November 19, 2022, located at 19226 W Dixie Hwy, Miami, FL 33180, USA), according to the Appendix. This includes provisions for designated jury members to participate in evaluations online where necessary due to geographic, scheduling, or other constraints, ensuring equivalent participation through secure, copyright-compliant platforms. All online evaluations are subject to the same criteria, confidentiality obligations, and audit requirements as in-person participation.
2. To approve the Protocol for the Selection and Work of Jury Members dated November 1, 2022 No. 011, for conducting the open competitive selection of films at the International Film Festival "Follow Your Heart" (attached), which incorporates detailed procedures for jury selection, evaluation, voting, online participation, and assignment of award categories to jury members based on expertise, as documented in the Appendix.
